Harold Bank, PFC
Co. K 167th Inf.
APO 31
Camp Blanding, Florida

CAMP BLANDING
DEC 13
11 AM
1941
FLA.

THIS SIDE OF CARD IS FOR ADDRESS

Mr. Samuel I. Bank,
Army Store,
Tuscaloosa, Ala.

ON MANEUVERS

Dear Daddy and Mother:

I got your letter today, and am answering it today. I don't see why you and Mother worry so much. It don't help at all. I don't worry, because I know how the administration officers stay and live during wartime. They keep them well hidfrom airplanes, because thy are very vital to the defense. So if you want to keep on worrying, don't try to get me to worry, because I won't. There is no use in it. The furloughs have been cut again, and I won't get but 8 days this time, and it will be from Dec. 28 to the Jan. 4,1942. So look for me home in the early morning of Dec. 27, probably about 11AM. Let me know at once of any word from Bert. I am not going to New York this time I guess. Maybe next time. I have been working late everynite this week till 12 PM. I am really tired and weary. This job is not as easy as Ithought

Write soon, Harold